

Fredericksburg Music Club, Inc. Presents Trinity Singers - In Concert February 17, 2019

Trinity Singers, Chamber

The Chamber Singers are comprised of approximately 40 highly advanced singers. They were one of only two invited collegiate choirs to be featured at the 2015 Texas Music Educators Association Convention. In addition, they were the only invited college choir in recent TMEA history comprised solely of undergraduates and with a majority of non-music majors.

The Chamber Singers have premiered numerous new works and served as ensemble-in-residence for the Composer's Alliance of San Antonio. In Fall 2014, the ensemble jointly premiered a composition by Norway-based composer, Andrew Smith, with the Grammy-nominated New York Polyphony quartet who served as artists-in-residence. Other recent projects include a Spanish Baroque program with the Walden Chamber Players of Boston, a production of Henry Purcell's Dido and Aeneas with period instruments, Tomás Luis de Victoria's 12-voice Missa "Laetatus sum" in Washington, DC, and the nationally-touring Legend of Zelda: Symphony of the Goddess multimedia concert at the Majestic Theatre.

Locally, they have been featured at numerous civic events along with radio and television appearances. In the summer of 2014, the choir had the pleasure of performing for the private wedding of Axelle Francine and NBA superstar, Tony Parker. Last March, they embarked on a major West Coast tour performing in Seattle, Portland, Sacramento, Berkeley, Los Angeles, and San Diego.

The Chamber Singers rehearse 4 days a week in preparation for a busy schedule of campus and off-campus performances.
